Meal Plan FAQ

■ Are there any other places to eat on campus besides the dining hall?

Craving a made-to-order meal? Head to the King's Den. Here we offer breakfast handhelds, burgers, wraps, munchies, and Tex-Mex favorites like tacos and burritos, plus Caribou Coffee® hot and cold beverages.

■ What are flex dollars?

Flex dollars are student dollars that can be used to purchase meals and snacks at the Dining Hall and the King's Den. Additional flex dollars can be purchased throughout the semester in any amount.

■ What is meal exchange?

Meal exchange at the King's Den allows meal plan participants to forgo a meal at the dining hall and instead enjoy a convenient meal featuring an entree, a side, and a fountain drink.

■ Will dining services accommodate my special dietary needs?

For personalized support, please don't hesitate to speak with a manager or contact us at ma4055@metzcorp.com.

World-class hospitality, with a side of fun! Like Popcorn Day. Just one of the many themed events we host throughout the year!
